FROM THE PASTOR

ARCHBISHOP PEREZ

LENT, A SEASON OF PRAYER & FASTING

In a pastoral message for Lent 2020, Archbishop Pérez writes, “Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of Lent—a season of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. These 40 days call us to seek a full conversion of heart that leads us to the richness of God’s mercy through the triumphant promise of the Resurrection at Easter.”

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT - THE HEALING POWER OF CONTRITION

This week’s reading from Genesis, which speaks of the election of Abram, offers us another clue about the nature of divine mercy. No reasons are given for God’s “decision” to call Abram out of the land of his forefathers; all we hear is that God promises Abram these wonderful blessings – a great name, a great nation, a great blessing – if Abram heeds this call. Saint Paul, in our second reading from the Letter to the Romans, reiterates the structure we saw last Sunday and we see again repeated this week: “He saved us and called us to a holy life, not according to our works, but according to his own design...” (2 Tim 1:8-10). God does not call us based on our own ability or merits. Looking at the Transfiguration, we see again that the first motion of mercy is a process of separation – just as Adam and Eve were brought forth from the earth, higher than the rest of creation, just as Abram is called out of the land of his forefathers, so too the disciples and Jesus are separated: they go up on a high mountain by themselves. In and through this separation – it is only to a select few that this is revealed – God’s shocking, surprising, luminous glory is shown. The Catechism (1450-1454) tells us that Contrition itself is an act of love for God, but crucially, it is first a gift from God. God even gives to us, unmeritedly, perhaps unasked for, the ability to see, recognize, and feel sorrow for what we have done to harm ourselves and our communion with God and the Church. Contrition itself, in other words, is also a mercy from God.

LENTEN PREACHING SERIES

Each week, the homily will focus on the Healing Power of Confession. In addition, one homily each weekend will be videotaped, so if you miss Mass or just want to reflect on the homily a second time, you will be able to watch it again on the parish website (www.olguadalupe.org/2020-lent-video-homilies).

Also, check out the Forgiven Series on Formed.org which is a wonderful supplement to the Lenten Preaching Series. Sign up on our website: www.olguadalupe.org/formed
