From the Pastor

Thoughts on the Synod a Thirst for Mentoring

In his most recent column Archbishop Chaput writes, “In October this year, bishops from around the world will gather in Rome for a synod. The theme of their discussions is “Young People, the Faith, and Vocational Discernment.” As a member completing his term on the Synod of Bishops' permanent council, I'll have the privilege of taking part in the conversation.

Read the first article in a new series.

Read the entire column on the OLG website under Pastor's News.

Catholic Social Services and Foster Children

Catholic Social Services of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia (CSS) recognizes the vital importance of the foster care program in our city and is proud to provide safe and nurturing foster environments to young people in need. As you may recall, the City ceased new foster care child intakes with CSS in late March of this year.

The foster care program operated by CSS is, at its root, one designed to provide services to vulnerable children and young people. Care is provided for all those in need with dignity, charity, and respect regardless of their background.

There has been a new development in this matter. In Sharonell Fulton, et al. v. City of Philadelphia, the City must answer for its decision to stop allowing Catholic Social Services to place children in foster homes, solely because the City disagrees with the agency's religious beliefs – a decision the City is threatening to make permanent on June 30.

Testimony Requested!

Sainthood Cause of Father Bill Atkinson

The Historical Commission for the sainthood cause of Fr. Bill Atkinson, OSA (1946-2006), seeks information on him from the general public. We are asking anyone who knew Fr. Atkinson to contact us and relate what you know about him. No story or encounter is too small. Whether you met him at Msgr. Bonner High School or at Archbishop Prendergast High School, or at any of the parishes where he celebrated Mass or the Sacraments, we wish to have your written recollections. In particular, we are interested in obtaining any personal letters or documents, mementos and unpublished source materials that may be used to foster a greater understanding of Father Atkinson's life. Photographs or videos of Father Atkinson would also be useful.

Please give your contact information to us, the Historical Commission for the Cause of Fr. Bill Atkinson, OSA, by e-mail at: Atkinson.cause@gmail.com or by telephone message to: 610-519-6937.

Thank you, Fr. Joseph Ryan, OSA (chair)

Congratulations to the eight girls, (only four pictured here), who participated and completed the Little Flower's Girls Club this past year. They learned about the virtues that will help them become the beautiful daughters that God has created them to be. We ended the year with a Mother/Daughter Tea in the PLC. The girls had fun while having tea from fine China and sharing each other's company.

Special thanks Mrs. Gena Ortega for her assistance and joy that she brought to the meetings. Next year the girls will complete Wreath II Virtues. If your daughter is interested in joining this group next September, please email Lisa Kopertowski.
