FROM THE PASTOR

ARCHBISHOP CHAPUT WELCOMES SUCCESSOR BACK TO PHILADELPHIA

This is a moment of great satisfaction and joy for the clergy and people of the archdiocese, and for me personally. This past Saturday, the papal nuncio to the United States, Archbishop Christophe Pierre, informed me that Pope Francis had selected Bishop Nelson Perez of Cleveland as the next archbishop of Philadelphia. That appointment is official as of this morning, and his installation will take place on Tuesday, February 18.

When I first spoke with the nuncio about my retirement last May, I asked for a successor who would care for and guide our people, speak the truth with conviction, and live a faithful witness to Jesus Christ. Archbishop Perez is a man who already knows and loves the Church in Philadelphia, and is already known and loved by our priests and people. He was ordained as a priest of Philadelphia. He's a graduate of St. Charles Borromeo Seminary. He's respected and well-liked by our priests, many of whom are his friends. And he served with distinction as one of our pastors before his ministry as a bishop.

If you want to know what his parishioners thought of him here in Philadelphia, just google his name on CatholicPhilly.com from July 2012, as he was preparing to leave the archdiocese for his service as an auxiliary bishop of Rockville Center. He was enthusiastically supported and very well loved by the people he served as a pastor — and for good reason: He's a good man, a man of deep Catholic faith, with the skills, character, and warmth that make an exceptional leader.

He's exactly the man with exactly the abilities our Church needs, and I'm very, very grateful to the Holy Father for sending him home to us to Philadelphia.

So, brother priests, fellow religious, and ladies and gentlemen, I present to you the next archbishop of Philadelphia, Archbishop-elect Nelson Perez. Please keep him in your prayers.

THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD

Malachi 3, 1-4—I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me.

Psalm 24, 7. 8. 9. 10—Who is this king of glory? It is the Lord!

Hebrews 2, 14-18—Because he himself was tested through what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested.

Luke 2, 22-40—Jesus, the King of glory, yet like us in all things, comes to his temple to be a light for all the nations.

BISHOP EDWARD M. DELIMAN

FIRST FRIDAY OBSERVATION FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 7

First Friday is a special time of grace and blessing, as it enables us, through Eucharistic Adoration, to grow closer to Our Lord, Who is present Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity in the Most Blessed Sacrament. First Friday is a time to slow down a bit and receive God's love into our hearts, so we in turn can give that love to others. Eucharistic Adoration is a great way to focus on Jesus and be refreshed in His service!

How can I get Involved in this Special Time?

Visit the Saint Juan Diego Chapel in OLG Church and spend some quiet time in prayer with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. The chapel will be open after the 8 a.m. Mass until the Benediction at 4 p.m. Sign up for a half-hour of Eucharistic Adoration today. Or just show up! To sign up, please utilize the following SignUp Genius link:

See the parish website or call the parish office to find out about other memorial opportunities for your loved ones.

THE WORLD DAY OF CONSECRATED LIFE

FEBRUARY 2, 2020

The World Day of Consecrated Life is celebrated this year in our parishes on the weekend of February 1 and 2, 2020. The Catechism of the Catholic Church gives us a glimpse into its different forms. Following is a brief summary:

Eremitic Life--

Without always professing the three evangelical counsels publicly, hermits “devote their life to the praise of God and salvation of the world through a stricter separation from the world, the silence of solitude and assiduous prayer and penance.”

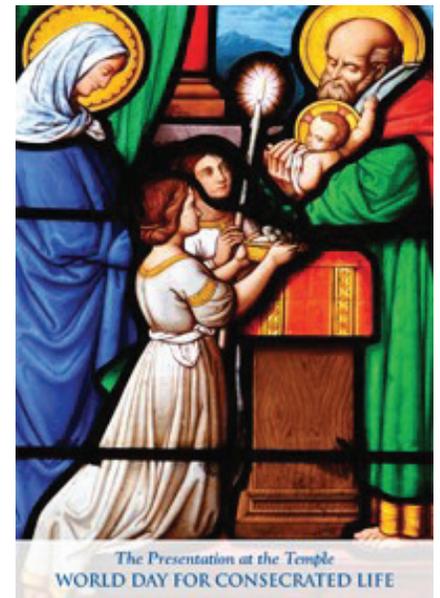

Consecrated Virgins--From apostolic times Christian virgins, called by the Lord to cling only to him with greater freedom of heart, body, and spirit, have decided with the Church’s approval to live in the respective states of virginity “for the sake of the Kingdom of heaven.”

Religious Life--Religious life was born in the East during the first centuries of Christianity. Lived within institutes canonically erected by the Church, it is distinguished from other forms of consecrated life by its liturgical character, public profession of the evangelical counsels, fraternal life led in common, and witness given to the union of Christ with the Church.

Secular Institutes--“A secular institute is an institute of consecrated life in which the Christian faithful living in the world strive for the perfection of charity and work for the sanctification of the world especially from within.”

Societies of Apostolic Life--Alongside the different forms of consecrated life are “societies of apostolic life whose members without religious vows pursue the particular apostolic purpose of their society, and lead a life as brothers or sisters in common according to a particular manner of life.”

The Archdiocese continues to be blessed with many different forms of Consecrated Life. World Day of Consecrated Life is a day to celebrate the many religious priests, brothers, sisters, consecrated virgins, and hermits. Let us take the opportunity to pray for an increase in vocations to the Consecrated Life and to thank God for their vocations.

SAFE HAVEN SUNDAY

Confident: Helping Parents to Navigate Online Exposure is a step-by-step guide for parents. When a parent discovers their child has been looking at pornography, it can be alarming, hurtful, even frightening. In the confusion of the moment, it is important for parents to understand that these are not uncharted waters.

Pick up your free copy at all Masses the weekend of February 23.

VOLLEYBALL SEASON

All 9th through 12th girls and boys are invited to join the OLG Youth Ministry Volleyball team. The team plays against teams from Bucks County parishes. This is one of the most enjoyed youth ministry events. If you don’t know anyone, don’t worry you will make new friends. Practices (once or twice each week at Sportsplex, Warminster) start in February. You do not need volleyball experience/talent (just a willingness to try) and you do not have to attend every practice. Games (Monday and Thursdays) are April through May. You don’t have to be a member of our youth group to participate. Each year we have one team, but we would love to be able to have two teams this year. If you have any questions or some reservations, contact Lisa Kopertowski. We can use you!

CREMATION SHOULD NOT BE OUTSOURCED

Most funeral homes use a third-party crematory. Varcoe-Thomas assures every step of care for your loved one is managed within our private facility. If you choose cremation, let our family care for your family.
