SAFE HAVEN SUNDAY

The most powerful tool we have when it comes to teaching our children about the beauty of their sexuality in the digital ages is conversation. Real, honest, “look them in the eyes” conversations about their questions. Passive parenting is not an option—the internet never rests.

This weekend we celebrate our second Safe Haven Sunday in order to provide free resources to assist you with confidently talking to your children about internet dangers, as well as their online and offline choices.

After Mass this week we will distribute the book Confident: Helping Parents Navigate Online Exposure. This book includes a free seven-day-text-to-opt in program that provides practical tips for caring adults to create safer digital environments for themselves and young people. Simply text SECURE to 66866. If you have any questions, or did not receive a book after Mass, contact the parish office.

LENTEN PREACHING SERIES

This Lent, Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish is presenting a Lenten Preaching Series. Each week, the homily will focus on the Healing Power of Confession. In addition, one homily each weekend will be videotaped, so if you miss Mass or just want to reflect on the homily a second time, you will be able to watch it again on the parish website (www.olguadalupe.org).

Also, check out the Forgiven Series on Formed.org which is a wonderful supplement to the Lenten Preaching Series. Sign up on our website: www.olguadalupe.org/formed

OLG PARISHIONER STORY BLOOD DONATIONS: THE LIFELINE TODAY, FOR THE HOPE OF TOMORROW

There are a multitude of reasons why people should donate blood. The closest one to us is the continuing need of individuals who are transfusion-dependent for an entire lifetime! We have a son who was born with a blood condition known as Thalassemia Major (Cooley's Anemia). He has a genetic deficiency whereby he is unable to produce life-sustaining blood cells capable of supporting vital organs, such as the liver, heart and spleen. He is transfused every three weeks in order to live.
Even so, the quality of his life is compromised, and he requires additional medication to combat iron overload to his organs.

In our younger days (when we had more stamina), we were actively engaged in recruiting blood for Children's Hospital of Philadelphia. What we can now do, however, is to simply urge parishioners to donate their blood in the upcoming OLG drive.
It is the right thing to do. God Bless You.

RACHEL'S VINEYARD RETREATS FOR HEALING AFTER ABORTION

Rachel's Vineyard is an extraordinary opportunity for any person who struggles with emotional and spiritual pain of past abortion(s). The weekend is a unique and effective process designed specifically to help you experience the mercy and compassion of God. There are many exercises to help you grieve your loss and an opportunity to understand and release the deep feelings of anger, shame, guilt, and grief that frequently accompanies an abortion experience. This process is extremely helpful for those who struggle with forgiving themselves or others. Rachel's Vineyard is a "therapy for the soul" which combines a unique and creative process for psychological and spiritual healing.

FEEDING THE HOMELESS

Feeding the homeless on the streets and in the train stations of Philadelphia has become the favorite Frassati Service Saturday for the youth group.

During this day of service, the group heads into Center City, goes into the train stations where they find dozens of men and women sleeping, or just hanging out, trying to keep warm and dry. Afterwards, the group ventures outside to look up and down the side streets. They don't have to look hard to find people sleeping behind trash dumpsters, huddling in an alcove or just begging with a cup on the corner.

Most recently, the teens brought socks (the most requested item by those on the street) in addition to food, water and candy. (Thank you to all those who dropped off socks in the collection bin.) They ask each person their name, shake their hand, and say a few kind words as they hand them a bag of food. This is where the Holy Spirit gets busy.

The hearts of the people we serve light up when they realize someone cares who they are and what they have to say, and the hearts of the teens break open and are filled with the grace of God. Some of our teens were so impacted by what they saw, they are starting a group at school to help the homeless. They gave witness at a recent youth group meeting about how desperate these people are. They realized how incredibly blessed they are and know to be grateful for all they have. There is nothing greater than to see God at work here at OLG.

Teens act out the Stations of the Cross at OLG in 2019.

CREMATION SHOULD NOT BE OUTSOURCED

Most funeral homes use a third-party crematory. Varcoe-Thomas assures every step of care for your loved one is managed within our private facility. If you choose cremation, let our family care for your family.
