Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish Vision Statement

OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE PARISHIONERS DONATE MORE THAN $31K TO HAITI

In late February 2026, Father Anaclet, Provincial for the Congregation of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Priests, from Bois de Laurence, Haiti, traveled to our parish to speak to the parishioners during all weekend Masses. Through a special collection, parishioners donated over $31K to support the local school and parish in Haiti. The money will be used for student scholarships, teacher salaries, nutritious school lunches, school and parish enhancements and healthcare. OLG has been helping support St. Anne's Parish and St. Jean Bosco School in Haiti through donations, building the school's infrastructure, a water system for the town, mission trips and prayers for many years. Recent donations from our parish enabled the school to extend its school enrollment (which formerly ended in middle school) through 12th grade.

"The need in Haiti is tremendous. We have built a wonderful relationship with the priests, the parish and the school in Haiti," says Monsignor Joseph P. Gentili. "The generosity of our parishioners is incredible; and I am humbled to be their pastor."

The Ecole Presbytérale Saint Jean Bosco School was founded in 1974 by Father Augustin Vrecko, a Salesian priest. Today the school services the Catholic community of Bois de Laurence and enrolls over 700 students in grades Kindergarten through 12th grade.

The dedicated children, teachers and staff can walk up to four hours each way every school day to attend or teach class and many also attend Sunday service at one of the three sites serviced by St. Anne's. Many of the teachers also teach religious education on Saturday mornings for the children in the local communities. The biggest need of the Saint Jean Bosco School is continuous funding of teachers in order to maintain a high quality education.

FATHER HERB SPERGER'S
LENTEN FATHER'S TALK

Fifty fathers and grandfathers gathered at the OLG Parish Life Center on Wednesday, March 11 for food, fellowship, and faith formation. Father Sperger discussed how St. Joseph is a role model for fathers. Examples include sacrifice, selflessness, and charitable authority, which applies to our lives as fathers and men growing in our faith and leading our families. If you are interested and want an invitation to upcoming talks, email Mike Herron at DAFF@OLGuadalupe.org.
