FROM THE PASTOR

PRAYERFUL BEST WISHES TO DANIEL DRAIN

Dear Parishioners,

It is with sadness that I announce the departure of Daniel Drain. Daniel has served as our Director of Religious Education for the past three years. I am most grateful for his hard work and dedication in assisting our parish in developing wonderful programs for the Parish Religious Education Program (PREP), particularly his expertise in providing a hybrid program for our parish children throughout the pandemic. Daniel's leadership and faithful service are greatly appreciated by all of us.

Please join me in wishing him well in his future endeavors. Daniel, his wife Mary Colleen and daughter Philomena are assured of our continued prayerful support. He has accepted the position of Coordinator of Academic Operations and Lecturer in Pastoral Theology at St. Bernard's School of Theology and Ministry in Rochester, NY. In addition, his wife has also accepted a position at the school as a part-time Marketing and Admissions Coordinator.

A search team organized by the Parish Finance and Pastoral Councils has been formed in order to fill the position as soon as possible and to make a seamless transition. Daniel's last day will be Friday, May 27.

Rev. Monsignor Joseph P. Gentili
Pastor, Our Lady of Guadalupe Church

MOST EXTREME ABORTION BILL EVER

This past week, Monsignor emailed all parishioners in regard to another Senate vote to try to enshrine abortion on demand in federal law through the so-called Women's Health Protection Act, S. 4132. The vote was held on Wednesday, May 11, 2022 and is the second time this year that a vote on the bill took place. For more information, see the website below.

www.voterveice.net/USCCB/Campaigns/94705/Respond

Keeping parishioners informed of these important issues is a priority of Monsignor Gentili. If you are not receiving parish emails, you can sign up on the parish website or contact the parish office.

SOBRE NUESTRA PARROQUIA

Todos luchamos con algo. Puede ser ese resentimiento persistente hacia un miembro de la familia, una relación dolorosa o rota, un miedo que te impide hacer lo que quieres, o el mismo pecado que sigues cometiendo, aunque sepas que está mal. Cualquiera que sea tu lucha, la buena noticia es que Jesucristo quiere liberarte de las cosas que te atan. Ven a aprender sobre las Cinco Claves de liberación, un proceso simple de oración que te ayudara a desatar el poder liberador del Evangelio en tu vida y encontrar una mayor libertad.

Los Obispos de los Estados Unidos están llamando a un avivamiento de tres años de la devoción y la creencia en la Presencia Real de Jesús en la Eucaristía. Creen que Dios quiere ver un movimiento de católicos en todo Estados Unidos, curados, convertidos, formados y unificados por un encuentro con Jesús en la Eucaristía, y enviados en misión “para la vida del mundo”.

Estos tres años culminarán con el primer Congreso Eucarístico Nacional en Estados Unidos en casi cincuenta años. Casi cien mil católicos se reunirán en Indianápolis en una peregrinación única hacia la “fuente y cumbre” de nuestra fe católica.

RIGHT REVERENCE FOR OUR LORD TRULY AND REALLY PRESENT IN THE EUCHARISTIC

Jesus said to them, "Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him." John 6:53-56

From time to time in our homilies throughout the liturgical year, Deacon Brady and I focus our Church's teaching on the Real Presence of Our Resurrected Lord in the Eucharist, under each of the species, that of the bread and that of the wine. While this core dogma of our Faith may seem to be beyond our ability to comprehend, it is the infallible teaching of the Catholic Church that during the consecration, the bread and wine are transformed into the Body and Blood of Christ, a mystery called transubstantiation. Through prayer and reason, we can grow to appreciate this beautiful teaching of the Church, revealed to us by Christ Himself. . . Our unshakeable belief in the Real Presence of Jesus contained in the tiny host is based on Scripture, Tradition, the teachings of the Church from its earliest times, the writings of the Church Fathers, not to mention the simple and solid belief of Jesus's own Apostles, who witnessed the Institution of the Eucharist first-hand at the Last Supper.

This knowledge should animate every part of our very lives and should cause us to center our entire being around the fact that Jesus loves us so much that He humbles Himself at every Mass to be truly present with us, desiring to become part of us.

Knowing that the King of the Universe is present in the church with us and is physically being fed to us through the actions of the priest, we should ask ourselves, how can we show proper reverence to Our Lord in the Eucharist?

Once we understand that we are in the very Presence of the Lord, and that we are consuming the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus Christ, we are obliged to show reverence by how we receive the Eucharist at Communion.

■ First, anyone who presents himself/herself to receive Communion should be a Catholic in good standing and be in a state of grace, that is, properly disposed and contrite of any and all sins (additionally, free of mortal sin, by making use of the Sacrament of Confession).

■ Secondly, when the communicant reaches the priest, deacon, or Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion, it is appropriate to make a gesture to indicate respect for Our Lord, commonly a profound bow of the head or a genuflection.

■ Thirdly, the communicant should clearly indicate how he/she wishes to receive, either on the tongue or in the hand. If one chooses to receive on the tongue, then coming to a complete stop directly in front of the minister of Holy Communion, the head is tilted back slightly, and the tongue exposed so as to receive the Host reverently and appropriately. If one chooses to receive by hand, then one completely opens his/her hand and places it over the other, so as to have the Host placed appropriately on the flatly exposed hand. The minister of Holy Communion holds up the Host and says "The Body of Christ" to which the Communicant responds "Amen". The same statements and gestures apply to receiving the Sacred Blood.

■ Lastly, if the communicant receives in the hand, then the Eucharist should be consumed either immediately in front of the priest, deacon, or EMHC or taking one step aside and consumes it immediately. This assures the minister that the Lord has been consumed properly and fitting reverence has been observed. Every avoidance should be made to consume while walking back to the pew.

Following the above steps is of utmost importance in the line for Holy Communion. . . Not only does this demonstrate proper reverence for Our Lord in the Most Blessed Sacrament, but it reaffirms that receiving Holy Communion is indeed extraordinary, sublime, and life-changing, each and every time. This also provides a powerful example to the children in the parish, whose observant eyes watch everything the adults do - particularly those who may not yet be old enough to receive Holy Communion.

St. Maximilian Kolbe said, "Be a Catholic: When you kneel before an altar, do it in such a way that others may be able to recognize that you know before Whom you kneel." If I may, I would also assert that the same could be said of reception of the Eucharist: when you receive Jesus in the Eucharist, do it in such a way that others may be able to recognize that you know Whom you are receiving.

I invite you to explore the many resources available at Our Lady of Guadalupe to strengthen your belief in the Real Presence and to understand more fully how blessed we are as Catholics to be part of this miraculous event every time we attend Mass. We are pleased to be able to offer free access to FORMED and WORD on FIRE ENGAGE, both are multimedia treasure troves of Catholic movies, books, and catechesis in both English and Spanish. Additionally, Deacon Brady and I are available to discuss in person what the Church teaches on this most essential topic or any other teaching of the Church for which you may want clarification or insight. Thank you once again for your commitment to our parish and witness to our Catholic faith. Please be assured of my prayers for a deepening faith in our families, as we continue to grow disciples and make Church matter.

Devotedly Yours in Christ,

Reverend Monsignor Joseph P. Gentili, STD

TREASURING HUMAN LIFE

The only way to ensure that there is no taxpayer funding of abortion or so-called "right" to abortion in PA is with a Constitutional Amendment. The Amendment must pass both the PA House of Representatives and Senate in two consecutive sessions, then be approved by voters on the statewide ballot. As a faithful Christian, what can you do to help?

- Pray for the success of the Constitutional Amendment.
- Send a message to your state Representative and state Senator in support of the Amendment. You can do so via the Pennsylvania Pro-Life Federation's website at www.paprolife.org
- Share this information with your pro-life friends and family members.
