FROM THE PASTOR

SAFE HAVEN SUNDAY

Dear Parishioners,

There have been many occasions throughout the course of this year where so many of you have communicated your prayers and support for me as your pastor. I am constantly humbled by your expressions of love and gratitude.

As your pastor, I am available to guide you in the life of faith. I am available to celebrate the Sacraments, rejoice with you in happy times and be there for you during the most difficult of times. I am also available to help with anything that is keeping you or your families away from growing in spiritual life. One issue that is becoming more and more difficult for marriages, children and families is pornography. Pornography can impact both children and adults spiritually, emotionally and physically.

I want to equip you with the appropriate tools to form, protect and guide your families on this specific issue. Next weekend, we will be celebrating Safe Haven Sunday. Safe Haven Sunday finds its inspiration in the U.S. Bishops document Create in Me a Clean Heart wherein they state, “The use of pornography to anyone in the home deprives the home of its role as a safe haven and has negative effects throughout a family’s life and across generations.”

When a parent discovers his or her child has been looking at pornography, it can be alarming, hurtful and even frightening. It is important for parents to understand that these are not uncharted waters. Next weekend, we are providing you with a step-by-step guide for Catholic parents on how to navigate this difficult situation.

This awareness weekend is meant to draw our attention as a parish community to the seriousness of the issues of pornography and to recommit ourselves to take steps to ensure our homes are safe havens for all. I encourage you to begin learning now by texting SECURE to 66866 to receive seven days of free emailed digital tips.

Sincerely,

Monsignor
Joseph P. Gentili, Pastor

Confident: Helping Parents to Navigate Online Exposure is a step-by-step guide for parents. Pick up your free copy at all Masses next weekend.

LITTLE FLOWERS IN OUR COMMUNITY

The OLG Youth Ministry Little Flowers Girls’ Group may be small but they are serious movers and shakers of the faith. This past Christmas they hosted a baby shower and collected diapers, wipes, a breast pump and other needed baby supplies for Birthright of Pottstown, PA. This past week the Little Flowers made Valentine treat bags for the Buckingham Township Police Department and the Midway Volunteer Fire Company. They also made treat bags and Valentine cards for the residents of the Buckingham Valley Rehabilitation and Nursing Center and sent cards to 104-year-old Marine Major Bill White who was asking for Valentines for his scrapbook. These beautiful little women love to put their faith into action.

CREMATION SHOULD NOT BE OUTSOURCED

Most funeral homes use a third-party crematory. Varcoe-Thomas assures every step of care for your loved one is managed within our private facility. If you choose cremation, let our family care for your family.
